DAILY DISPATCH

RICHMOND, VA., WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 7, 1874. VOL. XLVI.

LOCAL MATTERS.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT, YESTERDAY udges H. L. Bond and Robert W. Hughes presiding.—In this court yesterday morning the grand jury, Mr. Franklin Stearns foreman, was sworn in. Judge Bond said he would deliver no formal charge, but counselled a strict observance of the spirit and intent of the oath which the jurors had just taken. It was their duty upon entering the grand-jury room to shut the door against all prejudice and partisan feeling, and to consider dispassionately each case upon its own merits.

After the grand jury bad entered their room, Assistant District Attorney Worthington desired to assist in the examination of the testimony. The grand jury expressed a wish to consult the Court as to their right to allow him to do so, and were accordingly brought into the court-room, and a statement of the facts made by Mr. Stearns and the instructions of the Court asked, when Judge Hughes said it was perfectly proper for the representative of the Government to be present in the grand-jury room, and that that had been the general practice in the United States courts; but the grand jury could exercise its discretion. The grand jury then re-

A nolle prosequi was entered in each of the following cases of long standing on the docket : United States vs. John Hagan, Jr., United States vs. Winston Rogers, United States vs. Stone, Price & Lester, United States vs. Stone & Price, United States vs. John H. Stone, United States vs. Stone & Bannasch, and United States vs. E. R. Taylor. The cases of Hagan and Rogers are Richmond election cases, dating back several years. The other cases, except that against laylor, were for revenue violations. The grand jury by 1 o'clock reported in dictments found against the following persons for violation of internal revenue laws, all of whom are from Petersburg except the first: Benjamin J. Lewis, of Greensville county; Fayette Maclin, Samuel Smith, and Bridget McDevitt alias Bridget Ward. The cases of the Petersburg judges will probably be considered by the grand jury to-day. The accused have been informed that their presence will probably not be required before to-morrow.

The case of Mr. T. T. Broocks, who was indicted under the United States currency act, will probably not be tried at this term of the court. His counsel have some new questions to submit to the court as soon as a day is fixed for bearing.

The civil docket will be called to-day.

Bailey, who signs himself chairman of the Congressional District Committee created by the Convention which met in this city on the 7th day of August, 1872, notifies the delegates to the Convention called to meet in this city on the 7th instant that he will call the Convention to order at Maddox, "as chairman of the Congressional Committee formed by the Convention held in this city on the 16th of September, in consideration of the fact that Hon. Rush Burgess, the regular nominee of the Republican party for the Forty-fourth Congress, with a view of conciliating and harmonizing the party, agrees to submit his claims to the Convention of the 7th instant," says he feels constrained to submit to Mr. Bailey's call.

Mr. Maddox is chairman of the new District Committee. Messrs. Bailey and Humphreys both claim to be the only legal chairman of the old District Committee, by whose authority a convention was called to-

DELEGATES TO THE CONVENTION .- At the meeting of the City Conservative Committee to be held to-night delegates will be appointed to represent the various wards of the city in the convention to take place Saturday to nominate a candidate for the State Senate.

CONSERVATIVE BARBECUE To-DAY .- There will be a Conservative barbecue and massmeeting on the Westham plank-road, at forks of the road, to-day. Hon. Gilbert C. Walker, Colonel John B. Young, Major A. M. Braxton, Messre. H. T. Atkinson, George D. Wise, R. B. Berkeley, and others will be present to address the people.

THE BRITISH SCHOONER PICKWICE .- A tele gram from London published in yesterday's Dispatch announced the loss of the British schooner Pickwick, Captain Samuel J. Austin, which was abandoned at sea in a sinking condition while on a voyage to Santos, Brazil. The Pickwick was cleared at the Richmond custom-house on the 28th of August, and was consigned to Gustav Backneuser, Santos. She had a cargo of flour shipped by the Gallego Mills Manufacturing Company, as follows: 300 barrels Mt. Vernon, 700 barrels Gallego, 411 barrels and 150 half-barrels O'Dance-total, 1,486 barrels. The cargo was valued at $11,928, and was owned by a New York firm, having been purchased in that city through the New York agent of the Gallego Company. The vessel and cargo were doubtless insured either in New York or England, but of this fact we were unable to gain any information.

LARGE SALE OF COFFEE .- A cargo of 3,400 bags of new crop of Rio coffee, imported in the brig "Marie Augusta" by Messrs. Davenport & Morris, was sold at public auction at their warehouse vesterday morning at 11 o'clock. The sale was largely attended by from the north, sont PTANTI require the said parties to appear on the prices ranging from 17‡c. to 19‡c., gold. FLOUR FOR BRAZIL .- The American brig Leonard Myers, Hicks master, and the Amecleared from the custom-house for Brazil. The former was laden with 3,412 barrels of Company.

THE STATE FAIR .- If we may judge from the entries which have been made up to this time in the horse, cattle, poultry, foliage and flower, embroidery, needle-work, domestic machines, and implement departments, the prospects for the Fair are unusually good. We are informed that one of the Richmond stove companies has already entered an unusual number of fine stoves for exhibition, and others are to follow. All the entrybooks at the secretary's office are filling up rapidly. The hotel-keepers are receiving letters daily from all parts of the State making inquiries for and engaging quarters for the Fair-week; and it is almost certain pow that the Fair of 1874 will be superior to any exhibition of the State Society for years.

THE THEATRE LAST NIGHT .- The stock company of Mr. John T. Ford now at the Theatre is probably as good as any he ever brought to Richmond, and in the presentation of Griffith Gaunt it has displayed its capabilities very satisfactorily. The audience last night was, however, a rather small one, considering it was the second night of the season, and it showed a coldness and lack of enthusiasm that poorly rewarded the actors, and made the entertainment unnaturally dull throughout.

A play has to be very popular and exceedingly well rendered to bear repetition in this small community of Theatre-goers, and "Griffith Gaunt" does not seem to have filled all the requirements in that respect. To-night "Married Life" and "My Neighbor's Wife' will be presented, and we hope to see a large house; and with moderate encouragement it will no doubt be seen that the company has some first-rate material in it.

THE MARIONETTE COMBINATION .- There was a very large number of persons at the Virginia Opera-House last night to welcome Moody, was sentenced to three years in the in Richmond the first exhibition of the Anglo-American Marionette Combination. The entertainment was one of the most enjoyable and amusing ever presented in this city, and we have to retract not one word of what was predicted of the pleasure and enjoyment which this combination would afford. As we have already said, the exhibition comprises one hundred Lillipution figures that imitate the very action and speech of living artists, and perform in an acceptable manner > ments. The programme last evening embraced many features of interest. We may say without fear of contradic ion that Professor Blondin's tight-rope performances, Tipsy Jim's great stilt act, the Ethiopian delines tions by the Virginia Minstrels, Humpty Dumpty and Harlequin's adventures with Beauty and the Beast, and the grand transformation scene were presented most creditably, especially when it is remembered that last evening was the first of a series of entertainments to be given in Richmond, and it was hardly expected that everything would was hardly expected that everything which was hardly expected that everything with the expectation of th Dumpty and Harlequin's adventures with was hardly expected that everything would work as smoothly as we may expect here-

At another house, which was in charge of a negro man, who was sleeping in it with his little son, in attempting to surround it they awoke the little boy, who became trightened and started to run. He was shot at eight or nine times, but whether he was wounded or not I am unable to say.

They give dreadful accounts of their sufferings and brutal treatment. They were bandcuffed and chained together and put in charge of a squad of Federal soldiers, who had orders to shoot them on the slightest provocation. Along the entire route from Demopolis to Montgomery they were subjected to curses and abuses from negroes and scalawags, who were allowed to enter the cars at any station when remaining over. They were thrown into the vilest dens, reeking with filth, were denied water and meals, and were probibited from communicating with their attorneys. The marshal had a warrant for William Hillman, and when P. A. Hillman demanded by what authority be was arrested the marshal replied, "It don't make a d--n bit of difference. We'll take you along now and get William some other time." The trial is going on. Three negroes testified to-day. Their testimony is incoherent, their lesson not being well learned.

South Carolina Troubles. COLUMBIA, S. C., October 6 .-- In a communication to the Attorney-General of the United States, bearing date September 2, President Grant spoke of atrocities as existing here which showed a disregard for law, civil rights, and personal protection that ought not to be tolerated in a civilized government. The State Tax Union, which met in convention on the 10th of September, appointed a committee consisting of one delegate from each county to inquire what atrocities have been committed, and in what section, and by what class of persons. The committee has just made its report through Colonel James H. Rion, president. It says: "We have failed to ascertain a single case in the State of an injury, outrage, or wrong committed during the present year by a white man upon a negro in the slightest degree attributable to the race, color, or previous condition of servitude of the negro, or upon any Republican on account of his political opinions,'
